

Enhance Your Martial Arts!

Practitioners of all styles Welcome!

Train with living legend Kyoshi Roy Osborne. Kyoshi Osborne has trained for 58 years, including 12 years in Okinawa where he grew up as a child. He studied with many of the great Masters and has remained true to the genuine combat aspects of Okinawa Karate his entire life. He served his Country as a combat veteran in Vietnam and has applied his skills many times to protect himself and others.

Topics

Kyusho: The art of attacking vital nerve centers and pressure points

Tuite: The Okinawa internal grappling system, which consists of the manipulation of bone ligaments tendons and muscles

The methods taught in this seminar come directly from Hohan Soken, Fusei Kise, Kanei Uechi and Seiyu Oyata.

Training will be held at MTAC. MTAC is an 8,000 sq ft. indoor facility with a two acre outdoor training area. MTAC is a fully equipped law enforcement training center that is also open to the public.

MTAC has fully equipped classroom, training room and several realistic stages, including a Hotel Room, Bank, Jail Cell, Convenient Store, House, Police Car, SUV, School Bus, and Breachable Door.

DATE: Sunday, October 18th

TIME: 9am to 5pm

LOCATION: MTAC at 14009 Achyl Ave Warren, MI 48089

Fee: $100

Registration form is on the back of this flyer. CCW Defenders is sponsoring a free dinner after class.

You won't be disappointed!